Courses and course registration

Law students on the Erasmus programme/bilateral agreements and NordPlus students who have completed two years of law studies or more are welcome to register for exams at master's level. Please check with your exchange coordinator at your home university whether you should take courses at bachelor's or master's level.

You are required to choose at least three full courses in one semester (30 ECTS). The Faculty does reserve the right to cancel options if the number of students wishing to follow the course is insufficient. The semester pages will be updated from 4 June for the autumn semester 2013. We offer different courses in the spring semester 2014.

Course pre-registration in nominationweb is not binding; you are free to make changes when you arrive. The deadline for final registration for courses and exams for the autumn semester 2013 (done online in studentweb) is September 1st.

Orientation meetings

Orientation week and Buddy Week for all new international students start August 12th.

The Faculty of Law welcomes you to an orientation meeting Tuesday 20th of August, 10:15 (Aud 14, Domus Bibliotheca). Important information on studying at the Faculty of Law will be given at this meeting. Lectures start in week 35 and examinations take place in November/December.

You have received a letter of admission on e-mail from The International Education Office with practical information regarding housing (deadline 1 June), course registration, prearrival guide etc., please read all the information links carefully.

Please remember to contact the International Student Reception (Knutepunktet) on the main campus (Blindern) as soon as you arrive in Oslo in order to collect your welcome package containing important information.

We look forward to welcoming you to the Faculty of Law

Sincerely yours

Elisabeth Reien
