NB! Jus 5870- International and Comparative Labour Law (new course) is not yet published on the internet.

You are required to choose three full courses in one semester (30 ECTS). The Faculty does reserve the right to cancel options if the number of students wishing to follow the course is insufficient. The semester pages will be updated from end November for the spring semester 2014.

Course pre-registration in nominationweb is not binding; you are free to make changes when you arrive. The deadline for final registration for courses and exams for the spring semester 2014 (done online in studentweb) is February 1st.

Orientation meetings

The Orientation week / Buddy Week for all new international students starts January 6th.

The Faculty of Law welcomes you to an orientation meeting Tuesday 21th of January, 10:15 (Aud 14, Domus Bibliotheca). Important information on studying at the Faculty of Law will be given at this meeting. Lectures start in week 5 (from 27 January) and examinations take place in May/June .

You have received a letter of admission on e-mail from The International Education Office with practical information regarding housing (deadline 1 November), course registration, prearrival guide etc., please read all the information links carefully.

Please remember to contact the International Student Reception (Knutepunktet) on the main campus (Blindern) as soon as you arrive in Oslo in order to collect your welcome package containing important information.

We look forward to welcoming you to the Faculty of Law

Sincerely yours

Elisabeth Reien
International Exchange Coordinator, Faculty of Law
