

Private Law Consortium in Oslo

June 16-17, 2016

Kjerka, University of Oslo

PROGRAMME

Wednesday June 15:

1900: Dinner at Restaurant Eik, Universitetsgata 11, 0164 Oslo

Thursday June 16:

0845-0900: Coffee

0900-0915: Welcome

0915-1045: David Hoffman from Temple Law School, University of Pennsylvania, From Promise to Form: How Contracting Online Changes Consumers. Matteo Ferrari from University of Trento: The Certification Contract: A Civilian Perspective.

1100-1230: Daniel Clarry from Harvard Law School: The Irreducible Core Concept in Trusts Law. John Goldberg from Harvard Law School: Rights, Wrongs and Recourse: A Theory of Torts.

1230-1330: Lunch

1330-1500: Shai Stern from Bar-Ilan University: Property's Tipping Point. Gideon Parchomovsky, University of Pennsylvania and Bar Ilan (together with Abraham Bell, Bar Ilan): Partial Takings.

1900: Dinner Restaurant Fjord, Kristian Augusts gate 11, 0163 Oslo

Friday June 17:

0900-0915: Coffee

0915-1045: Shahar Lifshitz from Bar-Ilan University: Marital property. Tone Sverdrup from University of Oslo: Valuation of household work in property law.

1100-1230: Erik Røsæg from University of Oslo: Towards a convergence of the principles of European, maritime and common contract law. Adi Libson from Bar-Ilan University: Moral Uncertainty and Redistribution through Private Law.

1230-1330: Lunch

1330-1500: Shyam Balganesh from University of Pennsylvania: Causing Copyright. Ole-Andreas Rognstad from University of Oslo (with Isak Mendoza): The Evolution of the Economic Rights in Copyright.

1500-1530: Closing

Presentations and Papers:

1. Shyam Balganesh, Causing Copyright.
2. David Hoffman, From Promise to Form: How Contracting Online Changes Consumers.
3. Matteo Ferrari, The Certification Contract: A Civilian Perspective.
4. Daniel Clarry, The Irreducible Core Concept in Trusts Law.
5. Shai Stern, Property's Tipping Point.
6. Adi Libson, Moral Uncertainty and Redistribution through Private Law.
7. Shahar Lifshitz, Marital property.
8. Evan Fox-Decent, No presentation.
9. Stephen A. Smith, No presentation.
10. Jonathan Klick, The Right to Roam.
11. John Goldberg, Rights, Wrongs and Recourse: A Theory of Torts.
12. Erik Røsæg, Towards a convergence of the principles of European, maritime and common contract law.
13. Tone Sverdrup, Valuation of household work in property law.
14. Ole-Andreas Rognstad, The Evolution of the Economic Rights in Copyright.