

Statement of Interests

Yueming Yan

Chinese University of Hong Kong

I am writing to express my keen interest in serving on the Steering Committee of the ISDS Academic Forum. Given my involvement with, and commitment to, the initiatives and objectives of the Forum, I believe I bring a unique blend of experience, dedication, and vision that would greatly benefit our collective goal to critically improve international investment law and facilitate discussions on ISDS reform. My candidacy is rooted in the following qualifications:

Firstly, my academic journey in this field, evidenced by my published research and ongoing work on a book based on my doctoral dissertation, equips me with a nuanced understanding of the complexities of investment treaties, arbitration, and other types of dispute resolution. My commitment to rigorous research positions me to provide valuable insights into the challenges and opportunities within ISDS reform.

Secondly, my role as the Co-Chair of the American Society of International Law (ASIL) Asia Pacific Interest Group and the Founder of the Transnational Law Frontiers has not only enhanced my organizational skills but has also honed my ability to facilitate scholarly discourse. I have successfully orchestrated various academic events, such as expert talks and roundtable discussions, some in collaboration with distinguished bodies like UNCITRAL in Hong Kong. These experiences have ingrained in me the value of open dialogue and the amalgamation of diverse viewpoints, which are pivotal to the inclusive spirit of the AF.

Thirdly, further enriching my candidacy is my multi-regional background. Educated in Canada and China, with professional stints in Singapore and Australia, and now based in Hong Kong, I offer unique Asia-Pacific insights and a network that spans this dynamic region. I am also passionately committed to nurturing the next generation of scholars through initiatives tailored for junior academics in the field.

If granted the honor of serving on the Steering Committee, I pledge to foster the spirit of collaboration and inclusivity that is the hallmark of the Forum. I am keen to contribute to the Forum's mission of promoting diversity, academic rigor, and ensuring the relevance and impact of our collective research endeavors.

I appreciate your consideration of my application and look forward to the opportunity to contribute meaningfully to the ISDS Academic Forum's ambitious objectives.
