

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

Energy Law in the light of the green transition towards net zero emissions

14-15 May 2024

University of Oslo, Faculty of Law, Norway

The Department of Energy and Resources Law of the University of Oslo (UiO), Norway, in collaboration with the Research Group in Natural Resources Law, is glad to welcome you at the first conference of the ELAWNET project on Energy Law in the light of the green transition towards Net zero emissions.

The ELAWNET project looks at the regulatory changes that are necessary to accompany the green transition towards net zero emissions energy systems. It addresses a central topic for the development of the society and for our regulatory models, in relation to regulatory models for electricity markets and implementation of energy transition law and policy.

The conference aims to provide a platform for discussion and knowledge sharing on various legal issues of electricity market design and just energy transition under net zero goals.

The 1st ELAWNET conference will take place over one and a half day, starting in the afternoon of Tuesday 14th of May and finishing at the end of the day on Wednesday 15th of May 2024. All meetings will take place at the UiO Faculty of Law, in downtown Oslo.

Location: Karl Johans gate 47, 0162 Oslo («Universitetsplassen»)

Day 1: Domus Bibliotheca <https://www.uio.no/english/about/getting-around/areas/city-centre/se03/>

Day 2: “Professorboligen” <https://www.uio.no/english/about/getting-around/areas/city-centre/se04/>

Attendance:

Please note that the conference will be accessible for physical attendance only.

Scientific Conference Committee:

- Prof. Catherine Banet, Head of the Department for Energy and Resources Law, University of Oslo, Norway (Head of the ELAWNET project and Conference Committee)
- Prof. Joel Eisen, University of Richmond, School of Law, USA
- Prof. Endre Stavang, Department of Private Law, Chair of the Research Group for Natural Resources Law, University of Oslo, Norway

Administrative support:

Mrs. Camilla Arnøy, Senior advisor, Scandinavian Institute of Maritime Law,

15'	Panel discussion

17:30-17:50 Coffee/tea break

Session 3: Access to justice, procedural rights

17:50-19:20	Chair: Ass. Professor Sigrid Stokstad, University of Oslo
1'	Introduction by the session chair
15'	Going negative equitably? Appraising carbon removals in EU's climate law and policy from a justice perspective Ass. Prof. Matteo Fermeglia, Amsterdam University, Faculty of Humanities, the Netherlands
15'	Facilitating Renewable Energy Integration Through Specialised Environmental Courts in China Lan Wu, PhD candidate, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Faculty of Law, China
15'	Climate Justice, Just Green Transition, and Environmental Justice Ass. Prof. Tauhidur Rahman, University of Arizona, USA
15'	Climate Litigation: Insights from application of the duty of care, constitutional provisions and human rights obligations Shazia Bilal, Advocate of the Supreme Court of Pakistan (online)
15'	Remedying the Fosen Accident: reflections on private law remedies in a wind mill project gone wrong Prof. Endre Stavang, University of Oslo
20'	Discussion

19h30-20:30 – End of day 1 reception (for speakers and moderators only)

DAY 2 – 15 MAY 2024

8:30-8:55: welcome tea and coffee

8:55-9:00 Introduction by the session chair

9:00-9:20	Keynote address Sovereignty, Security and Solidarity: some challenges of net-zero initiatives. A new AAG book Prof. Íñigo del Guayo, University of Almeria, Spain
-----------	--

Session 4 - Just transition, a rights-based approach (Part I)

9:20-11:10	Chair: Prof. Catherine Banet, University of Oslo
1'	Introduction by the session chair
15'	Rethinking the right to property in the European low-carbon energy transition Ass. Prof. Kaisa Huhta, University of Eastern Finland (online)
15'	Design Principles for Electricity Law and Policy: Transformative Decarbonisation in the South African Context Julie Hassman and Lindsay Moses, PhD candidates, University of Cape Town, South Africa
15'	Energy Transition and Global South: Realizing a human rights-based approach to just and inclusive transition Oyenyi Abe, CCLA, Faculty of Law, University of Cape Town, South Africa
15'	Discussion

Session 4 (continued) - Just transition, a rights-based approach (Part II)

1'	Introduction by the session chair
15'	Energy supply and its specialized empowerment of customers with disabilities Mugabi Ivan, Assistant lecturer, Kabale university, Uganda
15'	The Fosen Case in the Lens of a Just Energy Transition: What can be done from a legal standpoint? Gard Lid Aabakken, research fellow, University of Oslo, Norway
15'	Discussion

11:10-11:30: Coffee/tea break

Session 5 - Permitting and Nature considerations - biodiversity losses and energy transition

11:30-12:40	Session chair: Prof. Endre Stavang, University of Oslo
1'	Introduction by the session chair
15'	Accelerating Permitting for Renewable Energy Projects: Addressing Sustainability Considerations (online) Marina-Elissavet Konstantinidi, Independent Researcher, Belgium

15'	Licensing renewable energy projects in times of transition. Heading towards nature or biodiversity net gain. Challenging predictability and distributive justice? Ass. Prof. Katrine Broch Hauge, University of Oslo, Norway
15'	The expansion of ocean-based renewable energy projects. A quest for balancing climate-economic goals with other stakeholders in the ocean. Carlos Cruz Carrillo, PhD Researcher, University of Basel, Switzerland
15'	Beyond ESG Reporting: Leveraging CSRD and CSDDD with Interlinkages between climate law and energy regulation Jamila Mendoza, Executive Chair, Norgesen Global, Norway
20'	Discussion

12:40-13:30 lunch break

Session 6 - Electricity trading and electricity certificates

13:30-15:00	Chair: Prof. Joel Eisen, University of Richmond, USA
1'	Introduction by the session chair
15'	Certified Illusions? Exposing the opportunity cost presented by the 'green' certificate regime in the UK electricity retail market, and using legal participatory action to confront it. Ben Hall, PhD Candidate in Climate Change and Energy Law, Durham University Adam Duncan, PhD Candidate in Energy System Resilience Modelling, University College London, UK
15'	Power purchase agreements in the EU energy landscape: from an obstacle to liberalization to promoting renewables Beatrice Bichi Ruspoli Forteguerra, PhD candidate, Università degli Studi Roma Tre, Italy
15'	Power Purchase Agreements under EU law scrutiny Prof. Catherine Banet, University of Oslo, Norway
15'	China's Low-carbon Energy Transition and Green Certificates Ass. Prof. Mandy Meng Fang, School of Law, City University of Hong Kong
15'	Urgency of a Presidential Regulation for an Effective Implementation of Power Purchase Agreement (PPA) to Accelerate Renewable Energy Use for Sustainable Electricity Supply in Indonesia Ass. Prof. Dian Parluhutan and Prof. Satya Arinanto, Faculty of Law, University Pelita Harapan, Indonesia
15'	Discussion

15h00-15:20 Coffee/tea break

Session 7: Financing, investment, and subsidies

15:20 – 16:40	Session Chair: Ass. Prof. Sondre Dyrland, University of Oslo
